

Classic Recycled Plastic Dining Chair with Armless Frame

Model: 4100

Feature this comfortable Classic Recycled Plastic Dining Chair with Armless Frame alongside the patio table by the poolside of your hotel or resort. With a simple armless slatted frame design and the standard seat height of 18", guests can get in and out with ease. Made from heavy-duty high-density polyethylene (HDPE) lumber, that will stand many years through rain and shine. Infused throughout with your favorite color, this chair will never need to be repainted, nor will it fade. Couple up with a seat cushion made of mildew-resistant Sundown Agora fabric to go along with this chair's simplistic design for a small upcharge. This product is made in the heart of Amish country in central Pennsylvania and is supported by a 5-year commercial warranty. Ships knocked down for a low shipping cost and will require easy assembly.
