

Ladderback Recycled Plastic Dining Chair

Model: 4113

The comfortable Ladderback Recycled Plastic Dining Chair will give a modern look to your outdoor dining area. Made from heavy-duty high-density polyethylene (HDPE) lumber, that will stand many years through rain and shine. Infused throughout with your favorite color, this chair will never need to be repainted, nor will it fade. Couple up with a seat cushion made of mildew-resistant Sundown Agora fabric to go along with this chair. This product is made in central Pennsylvania and is supported by a 5-year commercial warranty. Ships knocked down for a low shipping cost and will require easy assembly.
